To Our Patrons.

We trust our subscribers, throughout the State of Kentucky, will avail themselves of the opportunity to send by their Representatives and Senators a part, at least, of their dues for subscription to The Commonwealth. We have not annoyed our subscribers with dues for some years, and we hope they will not neglect us.

Those who may not have an opportunity of sending, as above requested, can do so by mail, at our risk.

We publish in another column an Alphabetical Roll of the Senators and Representatives, composing the next General Assembly of Kentucky, which assemblies in Frankfort on Monday, the 7th day of December. We are not sure that we have this Roll accurate. We have endeavored to make it accurate from all the sources of information within our control. The members themselves will greatly oblige us, if they will report any inaccuracies at our office, or by letter.

This schedule submits the constitution to the white inhabitants of Kansas; acknowledges the people of the new State to be the only tribunal that can right fully determine what its domestic institutions shall be; and gives full, practical and fair effect to the great principle of popular sovereignty. On the 1st day of December next the electors may meet at their proper places of voting and express their opinions by ballot on the question of slavery or no slavery. If a majority shall vote in favor of slavery, then the provision which makes Kansas a slave State will remain in the constitution, and in that shape it will be laid before Congress. But if the greater number of ballots be cast the other way, that provision shall be stricken out, and then every negro in the State, or hereafter to go there, shall be free, except the few who are now there in the legal condition of servitude.

Washington Union.

No one in the country knows better than the editor of the Washington Union that the schedule referred to does not submit the constitution to the white inhabitants of Kansas, but that they are only allowed to determine whether or not African slavery shall become an institution of the new State. The Constitutional Convention of Kansas does not "acknowledge the people of the new State to be the only tribunal that can right fully determine what its domestic institutions shall be," but assumes to determine those institutions itself—with the single exception in the question of slavery. Therefore, that Convention does not give "full, practical, and fair effect to the great principle of popular sovereignty." In spite of the croakings of Southern fire-eaters, we confess ourselves to be one of those who doubt the wisdom of the action of the Democratic Constitutional Convention of Kansas. If the Constitution is wise and just in its provisions, it will be better for to submit it to the approval of the people than to force it upon them without giving them an opportunity of expressing their will.

A Democratic contemporary says that one objection against the Topeka Convention has been, that it expressed the sentiment and resulted from the action of a small portion of the Territory. With equal force may that argument be used against the present Constitution. The Convention which framed it were elected by a minority of the voters of Kansas. While it may be said in justification that all had the opportunity to express their choice in selecting delegates, yet it still becomes a body who knew that they represented only a minority of the people, to force an ordinance set into being without submitting it to popular scrutiny and approval. It looks as though the Convention were afraid to submit their work for the approbation of the people. The fact of the matter is simply this: that the ultra Democratic press of the South advocated the election of Buchanan on the ground that by his election and the carrying out of the principle of the Kansas bill, Kansas would be made a slave State; but knowing that the majority of the people of Kansas would be opposed to slavery within the limits of the new State, after the election these same fire eaters plainly saw that their falsehood and deceit would be exposed to the deluded southern people. In order to prevent such an exposure, they are anxious that the people of Kansas shall have as little to do with the Constitution as possible. It had become evident that the tactics of the Republicans of Kansas would be to stay away from the polls at the election for members of the Constitutional Convention, but to vote against the Constitution if self should a clause protecting slavery be contained in it. The Republicans staying away from the polls, the pro slavery men obtained a majority of the delegates to the Convention; and now, having secured a pro-slavery Constitution, these ultra southern men repudiate their own vaunted Democratic principles, and announce themselves opposed to submitting it to the people who would, undoubtedly, reject it. This is the subterfuge to which they have resorted to still farther hoodwink southern men, by making them believe that Democrats, as a national organization, are in favor of extending southern institutions.

But there is little probability that the Democrats of Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, South Carolina and Virginia, will have their anti-republican wishes gratified. The Governor of Kansas, R. J. Walker, has already said that the constitution should be submitted to the people of Kansas—not to those who were at that time in Kansas, but to all the free white male inhabitants of Kansas, of the age of twenty-one, who may be in the Territory when the vote is taken, and President Buchanan is evidently partial to such a policy. The Indianapolis Sentinel, a Democratic paper, says, "If Congress is satisfied that what is demanded for the people of Kansas has their approval, 'Kansas and her Constitution' should be received into the Union; but if they are not satisfied then should Congress refuse the application and send it back for the approval or disapproval of the people of the Territory. For the purpose of settling the difficulties in Kansas it would be unjust to do violence to the will of her people." This is the true assumed by all Northern Democrats, and the Administration cannot afford to lose their aid and sympathy. If the Constitution is not submitted to the people of Kansas, the Democratic Congress will reject it. It will then remain to be seen what will be the course of Southern nullifiers. Will they resist and abuse the Administration, as they have poor Walker—that Administration's scape goat? If so, will they continue to act with a party which upholds an administration which they consider as an injury to the South? We rather think they will.

The Washington States says: "According to the New York papers there is scarcely a night passes in that city without the robbery and maltreatment of some citizen or stranger in the streets."

Washington City is in about the same condition. Citizens are not only knocked down there, but their ears cut off in pure wantonness of deviltry, in the open streets. Both New York and Washington are under Democratic government. [Plug Ugly Organ.]

It is true that these cities are under Democratic government, but it is equally true that there are enough Plug Uglies in each one of them to commit all the crimes, and villainies, and outrages that are perpetrated.—Low Paper.

It is well known that most of the villainies perpetrated in New York are executed by the denizens of the infamous locality called "The Five Points;" and the record shows that in that precinct nearly all the votes cast in the Presidential election were for Buchanan, Mr. Fillmore having but a very few. If it is possible that the American voters do all the rascality of the neighborhood, it is but another proof of the proverb, "that evil communications corrupt good morals." Poor devils! how can they help being mean when surrounded by so many rascally Sag Niggers?

Gen. Wm. T. HASKELL.—We gladly announce the fact, says the Lexington Observer, that this distinguished Tennesseean, who is now fully restored to mental and physical health, was discharged from the Lunatic Asylum in this city on Monday last. His form of mental aberration, as we learn, was not of a serious or mischievous character, and resulted from over taxation of the mind in literary pursuits and temporary financial entanglements consequent upon the recent panic. He was docile and tractable, submitting himself with but slight impatience to his confinement. It was remarkable that he completely understood his own case, and had a full knowledge of the treatment he needed, and was more amused at his pleasant hallucinations than anybody else. After his first week he recovered his mental composure, his disturbance being aggravated by the injudicious manner of his arrest, the unnecessary surveillance to which he was subjected, and the inhuman treatment of the police officers who had him in charge, which, according to his consistent statement before and after his recovery, was a positive outrage upon humanity. By his transport of resentment, which was in a short time, he was transferred from the wards and placed beyond the care of the attendants, in the portion of the building assigned to Dr. Churchill. He and a genial companion who remained to cheer and solace him a month longer than was necessary for himself, were furnished with an elegant room, a servant to give them constant attention, while they dined at the Doctor's table, and were allowed the privileges of the grounds, with permission to visit Lexington. Gen. H., we learn, leaves for Tennessee, on Friday next, and intends to visit us again next Spring.

A Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.—The Nashville Gazette mentions an eloquent of a man named Wentworth with a married lady of the city whose name is Broadbridge. Mrs. Broadbridge is an English woman, and has resided in this country about four years. She has been married eight years, and is the mother of four children, only one of which, a little girl about five years old, is living, and is now with his father. The Gazette says "Wentworth had been residing in Nashville but a short time, and represented himself as a regular licensed preacher, but was engaged as proof reader to one of the daily printing offices. A short time ago he declined a situation in one of the other offices because a young man engaged in the establishment was addicted to the ugly habit of profane swearing." It is evident that he is an accomplished and a man who has been the lively of Heaven to serve the devil. Such rascality should not be allowed to pass unscathed.

What a commentary it is upon the vulgar habit of swearing, that even this most despicable villain could not endure it.

LARGE MOVEMENT OF GRAIN.—The aggregate quantity of grain which will be shipped from New York during the month of November is about 1,500,000 bushels, of which, say two-thirds is in bags and the remainder in bulk. Last year, in November, while the extraordinary shipments of grain were taking place, the number of grain vessels which left New York was but forty-one, whereas it is calculated that not less than sixty one will sail before the present month expires.

THE RAINBOW DISASTER.—The telegraphic dispatches announce that the following persons were certainly lost on the Steamer Rainbow: James Laughlin and Hiram Charleton, of Alliance; Wm. Chambers, of Cincinnati; John Galigher, of Salisbury—all of Ohio; Jas. Brand, of Allegheny city; James McLaughlin, Geo. Craig, of Birmingham, and James McHaffey, of McKeesport—all of Pennsylvania; Thos. Newhouse and Geo. Newman, of Carrollton, Ky.; a blind man named Johnson, wife, and two daughters, going to Paducah; an Irish girl going to her mother at Camellion, Ind.; Mrs. Bond, Memphis, Tenn.

THE HARD TIMES AND THE HORSE MARKET.—Hard times have very sensibly affected the horse market; and those who, a few months since, bought on a speculation, find themselves unable to sell without a ruinous discount from original cost, if at all; while to keep them is no less ruinous than to sell. The New York Evening Post says that at the semi-weekly horse auction held in Crosby street, horses which in ordinary times would be held at $100 or $150 each, were struck down at $20 or $50, and one animal, capable of much service on a farm or before a dray, was struck off at $3.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA BANKS.—In compliance with law the comptroller general of South Carolina has proceeded, at the end of the month succeeding the suspensions, to exact the penalty of five per cent. per annum, payable monthly, by the suspended banks on their respective circulations during the period of their suspensions. The following is a statement in the cases of the six suspended banks in Charleston:

South Carolina Bank,	$93,750 50	$390 64
Bank of the State of S. C.,	1,189,999 12	4,958 53
People's Bank,	850,000 00	1,459 51
Railroad Bank,	196,000 00	820 00
Planters' & Mechanics' Bk.,	148,101 89	817 09
Farmers' & Exchange Bk.,	646,165 00	2,692 03
	$2,633,935 51	$10,978 90

The money goes into the State Treasury.

The Treasurer (S. J. Walker) of the Convention and Lexington Railroad has resigned his office. It is supposed from his letters, that he disagreed with the Directors of the Railroad with regard to the late suspension of the Company.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUDS IN MINNESOTA TO BE INVESTIGATED.—The Minneapolis, of the 14th, says:

We understand that on Wednesday last a committee of citizens called upon Secretary Chase and formally communicated to him that they had reliable information that forged election returns, poll lists, &c., had been manufactured by certain agents, mostly purporting to be returns from precincts in Cass, Todd, and Pembina counties, in which large majorities are represented to have been cast for Shibley for Governor; and they asked that on the receipt of any returns from those counties they should have the opportunity of inspecting them, and if brought by messengers, of questioning them as to the source from whence they were obtained. Mr. Chase agreed to their request and promised to give them due notice accordingly.

In this connection the Minneapolis gives an account of a Democratic caucus held at the American House in St. Paul, where arrangements were made to bring in forged poll books for the counties of Todd, Cass, and Pembina, in order to swell Shibley's majority. These and other facts will, it is supposed, be brought to light by the investigating committee.

In regard to the result of the election in Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Sentinel (Republican) says:

We give this morning official or reported returns from every county in this State in which election was held on the 3d inst. Of these, all but four are official, and the reported results in these four are doubtless very accurate. Our figures put Judge Randall upwards of 500 votes ahead on the official canvass, and 200 ahead, including the disputed returns from Jefferson and not including the votes of several rebel towns which gave Republican majorities. It is therefore, we think, perfectly safe to assume that Alexander W. Randall is the Governor elect of this State. The Republicans have also elected the State Prison Commissioner, Mr. McGraw, and probably the Treasurer, Mr. Hastings. The vote on Lieutenant Governor was very close. The Democrats have doubtless elected their candidates for the other State offices.

Sympathy with the rebels.

We have heretofore given some account of the atrocities committed by the Rebels in India. We have also given the statements of an Irish meeting in New York, sympathizing with the Rebels. It must be revealing to the eyes of every American citizen, that a meeting held upon our own soil, should extend sympathy with the barbarous wretches, who were no rule but the law of torture, and with whom every innocence and virtue are but the license for outrages. Yet it is even so. Inhuman in America have espoused the cause of the Rebels, and an organ in their own country responds most favorably to their sympathy. The following from a Dublin paper shows how Irishmen can exploit over the atrocities perpetrated upon English men and women.

"Sweeter than the voice of love, sweeter than the strains of music, sweeter than the melody of the English song, is the voice of the Irish people. They are delighted, rejoiced, and gloried in your cause, which they have heard of the return and humbled tone of your nation. There is not a vessel of wine or beer, there is not a glass of water, there is not a drop of oil, there is not a particle of food, that is not a General of the cause of the Irish people.
